L. J. FARMER'S CATALOG

Berry Plants, Roses, Shrubs, Perennials, Fruit and Ornamental Trees

1883 -- 58 YEARS IN BUSINESS -- 1941

THIS catalogue is issued to list and describe the different things we have to sell. We would appreciate any orders that you may send us and same shall have our best attention. Should you decide, however, to order elsewhere, we hope that you will make your purchases of actual nurserymen or seedsmen, by either going to their place of business or ordering of them by mail. We have no sympathy with the indiscriminate handling of nursery stock by Tom, Dick and Harry. It is a peculiar product, very perishable and must be handled expeditiously, with a proper knowledge of all conditions, or the results are disastrous. The real nurseryman has a reputation to make and retain and he can only retain it by giving good service. If you patronize a hot dog stand or a department store for your nursery supplies, you do not know what you are getting; when it was dug from the ground; or how it has been handled since. The average clerk who passes out these bundles of trees and plants from a stand or store, doesn't know a spirae bush from a tag alder. Established nurseries have men to wait on you who are thoroughly trained and know their business.

If you order of us by mail or in person, you have the privilege of consulting with our L. J. Farmer, or with men who have been with us for 20 years or more. Customers frequently write us that the information we give them regarding the selection of the right varieties and how to care for them, is worth more to them than what they pay us for the stock. As an illustration of what we can do for you, suppose you want to know how to care for rhododendrons or azaleas; improved blueberries; how to train dewberries; plant asparagus roots; trim grape vines; or how especially Spirae, Hydrangeas and Evergreens. Just the thing for people who want extra nice stock for immediate effect. Send your list of wants.

to do any one of the thousand things that must be done about a garden or fruit farm. We will be glad to enlighten you on any one of these subjects by mail or personal contact. If we cannot answer your queries, we will get some one who can.

We will be glad to see you at the nursery at any time, and if you order by mail, please address your letters to L. J. Farmer, Fragaria Nurseries, Pulaski, N. Y. We pack securely and deliver free to express or post office. We do not prepay charges, but put in extras to help pay cost of transportation.

Valuable Plants, etc. free. Every order amounting to $2.00 or more, will be entitled to free plants, bulbs, etc., selected by our L. J. Farmer.

CERTIFICATE OF INSPECTION OF NURSERY STOCK

This is to certify that the Nursery stock of Fragaria Nurseries (L. J. Farmer) of Pulaski, County of Oswego, State of New York, has been duly examined in compliance with the Agriculture and Markets Law and has been found to be apparently free from all injurious insects and plant diseases. This certificate is valid until Oct. 1st, 1941, unless revoked before that date.

Dated, Albany, N. Y., September 23rd, 1940.

We have a supply of extra large trees, shrubs, roses, etc.

Description and Prices of Strawberry Plants

Our plants are cleaned of dead leaves and runners and tied 26 to the bunch, 4 bunches to the hundred and 40 bu. (1040 plants) to the thousand; packed and delivered to express or parcel post, at following prices.

Premier. Very early, large size, wedge shaped, bright light colored. Productive, keeps well in market, sell for good prices. Has a long fruiting season. More universally grown than any other variety for market. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

Senator Dunlap. Plants very vigorous and require very little care. In fact, they almost take care of themselves after the first hoeing. We kept a bed of them in the same place for over 25 years. Berries medium in size, dark glossy and red all the way through. Quality the best, and fine for canning or preserving. The ideal variety for the busy farmer. 25, 25c; 100, 75c; 1000, $6.00.

Dorsett. Healthy, vigorous, very productive plants. Berries very large, glossy and of fine flavor. Succeeds on heavier soil than Premier. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

Fairfax. Fine growing plants, dark colored leaves and very productive. In a test plot, Fairfax proved to be next to Aberdeen in productiveness, out of a list of 25 varieties. The berries are medium to very large, very firm, almost black and the sweetest and best flavored variety I have ever tasted. It may be hard to sell the first quart, as they are so dark colored, but after the customer has tasted them, he will be back for a crate. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

Catskill. Very vigorous, enormously productive plants. Berries very large bright glossy crimson and the most attractive of any in market. It is probably the largest in average size of all strawberries. It sells for the same price as the Chesapeake, in the large city markets, bringing the best of prices. The flavor is excellent. Catskill is the favorite variety for market in Oswego county, N.Y. at the present time. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

Aberdeen. Very vigorous, healthy plants, the most productive of any in a test plot of over 25 leading varieties. Berries, large, wedge shaped and of good color. It ripens a week or more later than most other kinds, such as Premier, and lasts to the end of the season. It is highly considered in and around Pulaski, where it is largely grown. 25, 25c; 100, 75c; 1000, $6.00.

Wm. Belt. A very vigorous growing plant, but sometimes rusts on heavy soils. Very productive of fine flavored, very large, wedge shaped berries that ripen very late in the season. 25, 25c; 100, 75c; 1000, $6.00.

Stevens Late Champion. Very vigorous, healthy, productive plants. Berries produced very late in the season, lasting till most all others are gone. Fruit very large, fan shaped, coxcombed and very attractive in market where it holds its bright color for days. Very profitable for market, but the flavor is disappointing to the quality connoisseur. 25, 25c; 100, 75c; 1000, $6.00.

Ridgeway. The only berry we have ever tested except Gandy that will thrive on low wet clay soils. In such circumstances, the berries are very large, light colored and of the finest flavor. It ripens very late and does equally well on heavy upland soils, but runs only medium in size. This and Fairfax make a fine team for home use and appreciative market. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

Dresden. This variety is the largest berry I have ever fruited. We had any number of them last summer that run 10 to 12 to the heaped quart. I once saw 6 berries of the Marshall variety that heaped a quart. I am going to try and grow Dresden this summer that run 4 to 5 to the heaped quart. This variety has about the same color as Premier, not as glossy as Catskill. 25, 50c; 100, $1.50; 1000, $10.00.

Specimen of the Catskill Strawberry Greatly Reduced

Chesapeake. Large plants, moderately productive. Berries very large, covered with bright yellow seeds. Ships well and sells for the very highest prices on the New York Market. Largely superceded now by Catskill and Fairfax. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

New York. Vigorous, healthy, very large plants. Berries very large, light colored, but dark glossy red on side to sun. Flavor mild and agreeable, not acid like most strawberries. 25, 35c; 100, $1.00; 1000, $7.50.

Early Jersey Giant. Plants good runners and productive. Berries very large and attractive. We have picked them as they run, 20 to the quart, by the crate, and they sell at a premium in market. 25, 50c; 100, $1.50; 1000, $10.00.

Clermont, Culver, Gibson, Cresco. 25, 25c; 100, 75c; 1000, $6.00.

North Star. A cross of the Red Heart and Premier, retaining the good qualities of both, deep red through and through. We expect wonders of this variety. 25, 50c; 100, $1.50; 1000, $10.00.

Black and White Strawberries. We grow and pick these berries together for contrast. The black strawberry is almost jet black, very firm, good quality and fine for preserving. The white strawberry is a pale pinkish-white berry, very large and the sweetest and mildest flavored berry that grows. They make a great showing when exhibited together. Supply of plants is limited. 25, 75c; 100, $2.00; 1000, $15.00.

Gem Everbearing. The earliest to ripen of all the fall bearing kinds. The plants are moderate growers and very productive. Berries good size, firm and of good flavor. Must be allowed to get fully ripe or it is rather sour. The plants are inclined to overbear and lose their foliage unless sprayed with Bordeaux mixture. We find fall bearing strawberries very satisfactory and this is the most profitable variety. 25, 50c; 100, $1.50; 1000, $10.00.

Quality Strawberry Collection. 50 Fairfax, 50 Ridgeway, 50 Catskill, 50 Berri-Supreme, $2.50; 100 Fairfax, 100 Ridgeway, 100 Catskill, 100 Berrie-Supreme, $4.00.

Berri-Supreme. This variety has healthy sturdy foliage and makes a very hardy plant. The berries do not ripen until late and they last until the weather gets very cold. You can go out after the snow comes and find many of them under the leaves. The berries are very large, larger than Mastodon even; of good flavor, and produced in great abundance. Strange as it may seem, this is the favorite around Oswego, while Gem is the favorite around Pulaski. The plants are entirely hardy and very productive of large berries in the regular June season. It is a good variety to tie to for both summer and fall crop. 25, 75c; 100, $2.50; 1000, $20.00.

Mastodon. Very large plants, productive of very large berries which ripen real late. It must be grown on new soil every year or it will run to rosette or white leaf and be unproductive. 25, 50c; 100, $1.50; 1000, $10.00.

Wyzata. Nothing but the old Rockhill revamped. We find that when it does not make runners, that it produces a small crop of medium sized berries, but of fine flavor. When it makes runners, it does not bear a single berry in the fall, but is a good summer bearer. It is claimed to do wonders in the Northwest states, but we have yet to hear of any party doing well with it in the East. 25, 75c; 100, $2.50.

Beginner's Strawberry Collection. 50 Dunlap, 50 Premier, 50 Gem, $1.50; or 100 Dunlap, 100 Premier, 100 Gem, $2.75.

BIG YIELD FROM DRESDEN

STRAWBERRY

Mr. Irving D. Smith of Skaneateles, N.Y. State Nursery Inspector, set 24 plants of Dresden in 1930 and picked from them 38 quarts in 1940.

At a meeting of the N. Y. State Horticultural Society, Dr. G. M. Darrow of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, reported that the acreage of strawberries in New York state was divided among the different varieties about as follows: Premier (Howard 17), 45%; Catskill, 20%; Clermont, 10%; Fairfax, 7%; Culver, 5%; Chesapeake, 3%; Dorsett, 2%; Aberdeen, 2%; Pathfinder, 1%; All Others, 4%. He suggests heavier plantings of Catskill, Fairfax and Dresden.

List of the Most Desirable Raspberry Varieties

RED RASPBERRIES

Chief. Plants very vigorous, Berries medium size, firm good flavor and ripen very early. Price for 1 yr. plants, 10, 40c; 25, 75c; 100, $2.50; 1000, $20.00. 2 yr. old transplants, 10, 85c; 25, $1.50; 100, $4.50; 1000, $38.00.

Latham. Plants vigorous and very productive. Berries very large, firm, of fine color and appearance, but lacking the finest flavor. It outsells all others in the markets and on account of this, is preferred by commercial growers. Price same as Chief.

Cuthbert. Plants vigorous and productive and on new land and in favorable conditions, where it is not affected by mosaic, it is the best raspberry for home use and appreciative market. The berries are large, dark red and so delicious they melt in your mouth. Our plants are free of disease. Price same as Chief.

Newburgh. Plants sturdy and good growers but must have rich soil and plenty of moisture. Berries, the largest, firm and bring highest prices. Only ordinary flavor. Price same as Chief.

St. Regis. Plants stocky and healthy. Productive of medium sized berries that ripen very early in July and again in October and November, when they bring a good price in the market. Price same as Chief.

Herbert. Hardy, very productive, medium size. Price same as Chief.

Viking. Plants very vigorous, productive and hardy. Berries large, fine color and sell well in market. Next to Cuthbert, this is the finest flavored of all red raspberries and we advise it for home use and markets where quality is appreciated. 10, 50c; 25, $1.00; 100, $3.50; 1000, $30.00. 2 yr., 10, 85c; 25, $1.50; 100, $5.00; 1000, $45.00.

Taylor. (new) Plants good growers and very productive. Berries very large, the largest of any red raspberry we know. Attracts the greatest attention and sells for the highest prices, but rather disappointing in flavor, being the sourdest red raspberry we have ever tasted, but most people buy and eat with the eyes. Price same as Viking.

Marcy. (new) Much like Taylor, some say not quite so hardy but fully as sour, and more productive. Even larger than Taylor. Price same as Viking.

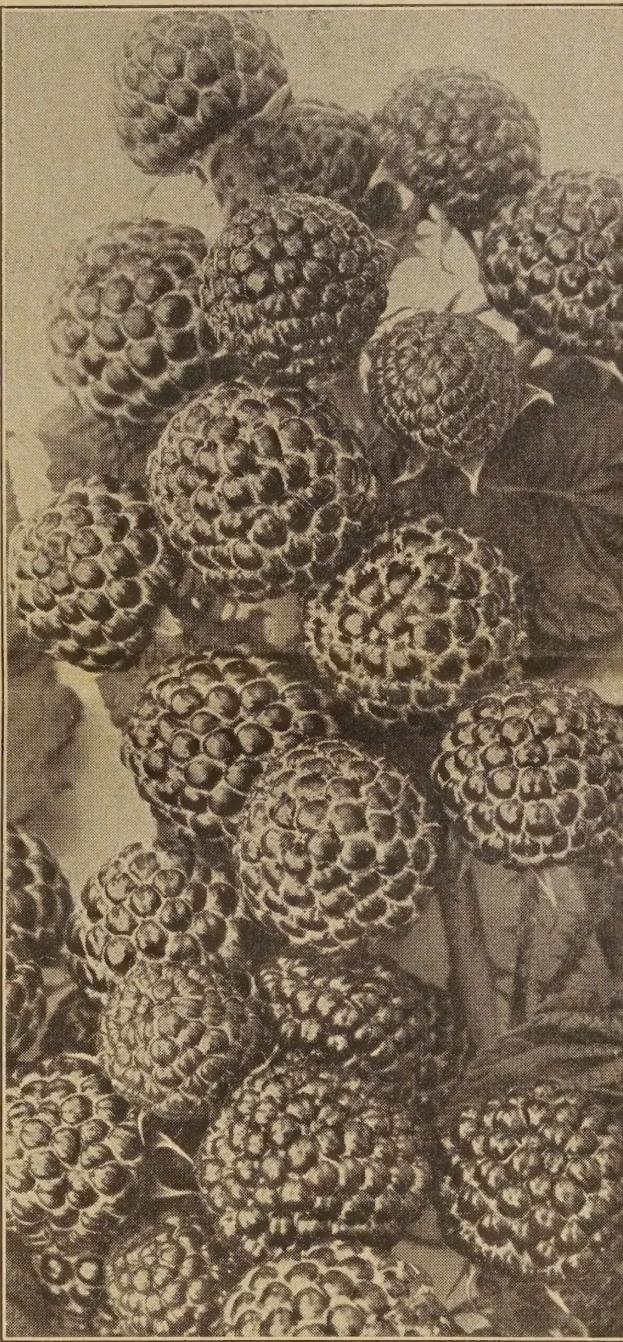

Indian Summer. (new) We are delighted with this variety. The plants are good strong growers and very productive. They bear a good crop in July and again in October and early November. The berries are very large, as large as Taylor or Marcy and of good flavor, very dark, and sell well in market. The past fall, we marketed them freely in Pulaski, until October 18th, when we had a hard freeze. When the weather is favorable, they last well into November. Its only fault with us, is, that the berries of the July crop shrink or collapse after standing a while. It is the earliest red raspberry we know and the most profitable for market for us. Price same as Viking.

Golden Queen. Sweetest of all raspberries. Fine for home use. An albino of Cuthbert. Price same as Viking.

BLACK RASPBERRIES

Plum Farmer. More largely grown in the East than any other variety. Plants bluish gray in appearance and very vigorous, hardy and productive of large fruit. Berries grayish black, sweet and delicious. 1 yr. tips, 10, 40c; 25, 75c; 100, $2.50; 1000, $20.00; 2 yr. transplants, 10, 75c; 25, $1.50; 100, $5.00; 1000, $45.00.

Cumberland. Strong growing plants, reddish in color, very productive of the largest berries. Fruit very large, very fine flavor, the best of the pure jet black varieties. Universally grown, especially in the West. Price same as Plum Farmer.

Blue Ribbon, the Largest Black Raspberry

New Marvel, New Logan. Price same as Plum Farmer.

Blue Ribbon (new), Best described as a magnified and improved Plum Farmer. The berries, as well as the plants, are about fifty per cent larger than Plum Farmer and even more healthy and productive. 10, $1.00; 25, $1.75; 100, $6.00; 1000, $50.00; 2 yr., 10, $1.25; 25, $2.25; 100, $7.50; 1000, $60.00.

DARK RED or PURPLE RASPBERRIES

Columbian. Very vigorous, strong growing cane, very productive. Berries very large, good flavor and fine for canning. The best variety for general purpose, especially for the farmer and small gardener to grow. Strong tips, 10, 50c; 25, $1.00; 100, $3.50; 1000, $25.00; 2 yr. transplants, 10, 75c; 25, $1.50; 100, $4.50; 1000, $40.00.

Royal Purple. Plants sturdy, hardy and very productive. Canes smooth with no prickles. Will thrive on heavy soils where Columbian is a failure. Berries darker than Columbian, firmer and can be picked without crumbling. 10, $1.00; 25, $2.00; 100, $6.00; 1000, $45.00; 2 yr., 10, $1.25; 25, $2.50; 100, $7.50; 1000, $60.00.

Sodus. (new) Very similar to Columbian in cane and fruit, except about 50% larger. Enormously productive of the largest berries we have ever seen, but rather sour. Will out class Columbian in market, but not for home use. Price same as Royal Purple.

BLACKBERRIES

Eldorado. The most popular of all blackberries. Canes dark colored, vigorous, very productive and hardy. Berries large, long in shape, sweet and delicious. 10, 50c; 25, 75c; 100, $2.50; 1000, $20.00; 2 yr., 10, 75c; 25, $1.25; 100, $4.00; 1000, $35.00.

Snyder. Reddish, upright canes, very productive. Hardest of all blackberries except Ancient Briton and Western Triumph. Berries, round, jet black and rather sour, until over-ripe. Fine for pies and canning. Price same as Eldorado.

Erie, Ancient Briton, Western Triumph and Taylor. same price as Eldorado.

Ora Neill. (new) The largest blackberry we have ever grown. Canes vigorous and productive, very much like Eldorado, but fully 50% larger, but not quite as fine flavored. Sells for best prices in market. 25c each, 10, $1.50; 25, $3.00; 100, $10.00; 2 yr., 40c; 10, $3.00; 25, $5.00; 100, $15.00.

Alfred Blackberry is too tender and does not thrive with us.

Lucretia Dewberry. Ripens with late strawberries. Very large and attractive. Three to four times as large as blackberries and sells at sight for highest prices. Price same as Eldorado blackberry.

Beginner's Raspberry Collection, 25 Chief, 25 Latham, 25 St. Regis, 25 Plum Farmer, 25 Columbian, 1 yr., $3.75. 25 Chief, 25 Latham, 25 St. Regis, 25 Plum Farmer, 25 Columbian, 2 yr. transplants, $6.75.

Quality Raspberry Collection, 25 Cumberland, 25 Cuthbert, 25 Golden Queen, 25 Columbian, 25 Indian Summer, 1 yr., $4.25; 2 yr., $7.00.

Quality Blackberry Collection, 25 Eldorado, 25 Ora Neill, 25 Lucretia Dewberry, 1 yr., $4.25; 2 yr., $6.00.

Giant Size Blueberries, The six leading most popular varieties, listed in about their time of ripening, beginning about July 1st, Cabot, Rancocas, Pioneer, Concord, Rubel and Jersey. Price, 2 yr. size, 2 for $1.50; 6 for $3.95; 12 for $6.95.

Boysenberry, like most other varieties of berries from California, is a complete failure with us, too tender for our climate; too prickly to gather the fruit. It is a pity that so many have wasted their money on this worthless thing. We know all about it and have never offered it to our customers.

I GOT IT OF FARMER

As one goes through the gardens and plantings of people who love flowers, plants, vines, shrubs, trees, etc., we often hear some one say, "Where did you get that beautiful thing?" The answer, very frequently, in some places, almost invariably is, "I got it of L. J. Farmer." This is one of the most satisfying things about the nursery business, the fact that we handle things that make for beauty and so much pleasure everywhere. Very few nurserymen ever got very rich in earthly goods, the opportunities they have to show their generosity and public spirit are so many, that it takes away whatever small profits their business may show at the end of each year, but then, we cannot take material things with us when we go and what is the use?

LETTERS FROM CUSTOMERS

Fairmont, W. Va., March 28th
Please send me one of your latest catalogues. Friends of mine have bought of you and they told me they were always satisfied.

Bertha E. Miller

Falls Church, Va., April 6th
I was much pleased with the splendid roots systems of the gooseberry and currants I purchased from you last fall.

Roses, Shade and Ornamental Trees

ROSES

Our rose bushes are the largest and finest to be had. They are of the grade known as No. 1, 2 yr. size. While our prices are only about $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{2}{3}$ what most firms ask for the same grade we are content to make a small profit. We do not handle spent hot-house and No. 2 grade roses, such as are offered at cut throat prices. Our rose plants are dug and shipped to you the same day. We will be glad to make a selection of varieties for you if you are unacquainted with roses. We will put in 12 kinds, if wanted, in a collection of one dozen. If I were to select four of the best well known roses I know, I believe I would select, Dame Edith Helen (pink), Etoille de Hollande (red), President Hoover (orange), and Mme. Jules Bouche (white). Price of No. 1, 2 yr. roses, 50c each; 12, \$5.00; 100, \$40.00.

LETTERS FROM CUSTOMERS

Chestnut Hill, Pa., November 27th
A good cherry tree came. Can you let me have one currant bush?

C. C. Savage

Fayetteville N. Y., April 1st

Two years ago I got asparagus, strawberries and trees from you. From the 200 strawberry plants we had 5 bushels of berries. Expect to have ample asparagus this year.

A. W. D. Steele

Earville, N. Y., May 23rd
Our order came in fine condition. Plants and roots were set out same day.

At It 58 Years

L. J. Farmer, At It 58 Years

The following editorial appeared in the March 1st, 1941 issue of "Better Farms," a farm paper published by Major Hugh Barclay of Douglaston Manor Farms, Pulaski, N. Y.

"Thirty years ago Lawrence J. Farmer,—'Plum,' as his intimate friends called him—was the daddy, granddaddy and King of the Strawberry World. What he said about berries was never questioned, for he knew. He wrote books on the subject, lectured at Farmer's Institutes, the local forerunners of the present Farm and Home Eureau, ran a newspaper for a brief period, whooped 'er up for Teddy Roosevelt, was a good family man—still is—and a leading citizen. Many of the present day crop of nurserymen got their start by buying 'Farmer's Plants.'

"Time only has changed his ways. He's as keen on the trigger as ever, if you're talking strawberries and the nursery business, though he no longer lectures to gaping listeners, indulges in the publication field or emotes for the Roosevelt of his choice.

"Today, as pictured above, he finds solace in his reveries, home, and pets. Though well along in years—well towards the four score mark—he's far from doddering. Every day sees him around the streets, alert, kind to everybody, and as he terms it 'pluggin along'."
